

Gumby,

you were really fun in BSCS I'm sorry I got stuck in the front of the room, but then again I might have got crossed out back there. Good luck on the Galaxy and watch those visits to Libbey!

SPIRIT

Students united with a common devotion cheer our teams to victory.
Or, in defeat,
hold their heads high—proud to be Spartans and proud to have tried.

Spirit—the spark of enthusiasm
Reflects the pride of being
In a moment of glory.
Through new ventures
Emerges individual expression,
Lasting memories,
Rewards and personal satisfaction.
Individual pursuit instills honor
In the never-ending battle for unity,
As Spartans strived for recognition
In this a year to remember.

Spirit--the spark of enthusiasm

"Hail to the Spartan,"
the air of the gym reverberates;
pennies pouring into the Stadium Fund, immeasurable pride,
infectious enthusiasm,
Spirit of '69.

Reflects the pride of being

Classes were constantly disrupted by the excitement of the day.
The tenseness mounted as 1500 faithful students
paraded to the game and proudly watched as Tim Callaghan drove the final yards of the winning touchdown.

Spartans demonstrated that all-important special spirit which sparked the team to a victorious Homecoming weekend.

In a moment of glory.

Tension mounts
as a hushed silence
rolls over the stands.
The announcement is made.
Poised and smiling,
Miss Joyce Beck steps forward to accept her crown and the title of Homecoming Queen 1968.

Miss Pat Woodie

Miss Pat Smith

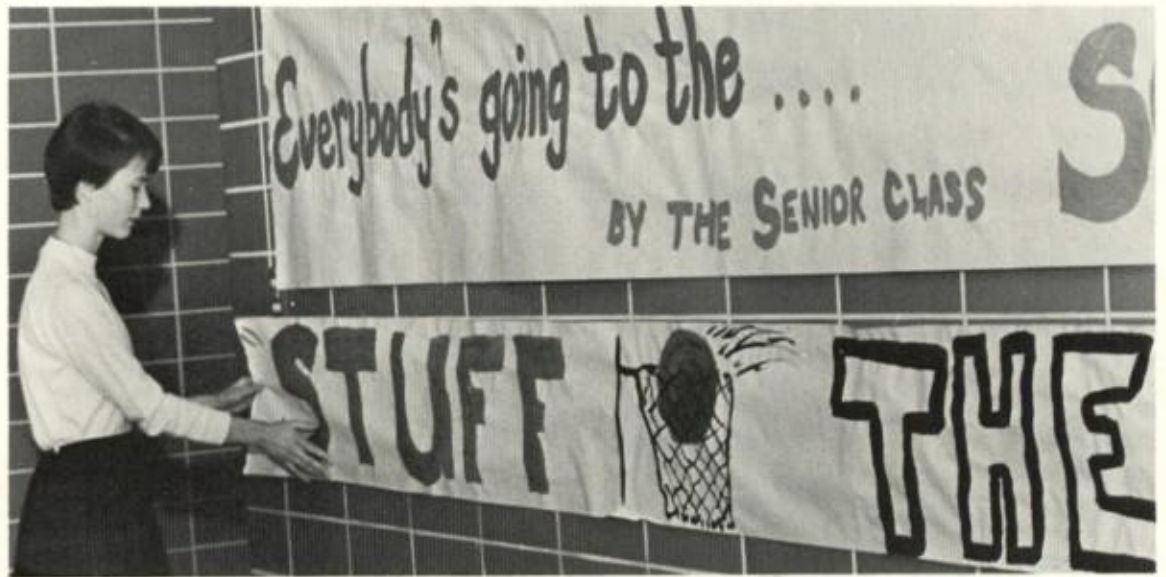

Miss Marsha Hardy

Miss Joyce Beck, 1968 Homecoming Queen

Miss Pat Boals

Through new ventures

Accepting many new customs and opinions, and expressing their own, Cornelia Borjes, Ray Zeiger, and Juarez Castrillion Lopes entered Start with unending curiosities, but eager to become part of the active social life.

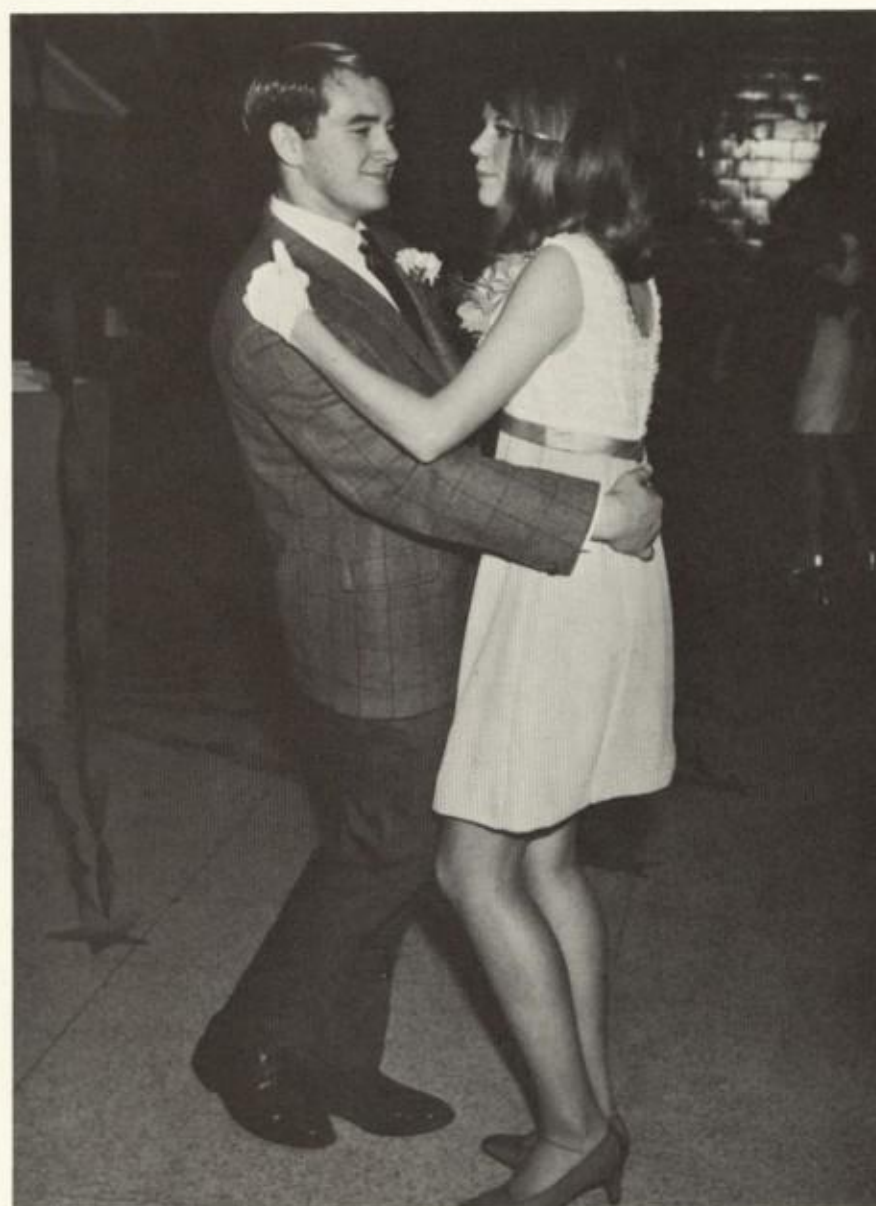

Emerges individual expression,

Striving for perfection,
tedious hours of blocking,
and long nights of endless rehearsal blended together to transform the auditorium stage
into an imaginary world
of convicts and comedy.
The moments of utter exhaustion
and frustration
became worthwhile
as cast members took their bows
before the final curtain of a successful "My Three Angels".

Lasting memories,

Wishing wells and silver stars
accented the romantic mood
of the November Student Council Dance, Moonlit Memories.

The crowning of the queen and the music of the "Reckless Bear" combined to create a memorable evening.

Miss Marsha Hardy, 1969 Student Council Queen

Miss Pat Woodie

Rewards and personal satisfaction.

Recognition of service
was combined with beauty
as Miss Marsha Hardy ascended to the newly acquired green velvet throne and began her reign
as the 1968 Student Council Queen.

Miss Sue Wright

Miss Natalie Parks

Miss Polly Brandman

Individual pursuit instills honor

Start's most valuable seniors, those whose character
was exhibited
through scholarship, leadership, and service were acknowledged at the traditional evening
National Honor Society induction.

Mr. Al Grande
offered the new inductees sound advice.

Another tradition,
the annual Christmas Chorale with special performances by the boys' chorus and the girls' ensemble highlighted the winter season.

In the never-ending battle for unity,

Vibrations of the fight song resounded through the building and intensified enthusiasm
as Spirit Week '69 climaxed.
Tom Moebius was proclaimed "Mr. Spirit" at the school-wide pep assembly and Forum inspired the team and loyal crowds with a song of the plight of "Bubbles Bowsher."
The "pschyed" team rewarded their faithful with a victory over Start's arch-rival in a tense, heart-stopping battle.

As Spartans strived for recognition

Junior couples embarked on an evening enchanted by the "Lure of the Woodland."

The rhythmic strains of Charles McDaniels created a bewitching atmosphere as dancers whirled through a forest of silver trees and bubbling fountains.

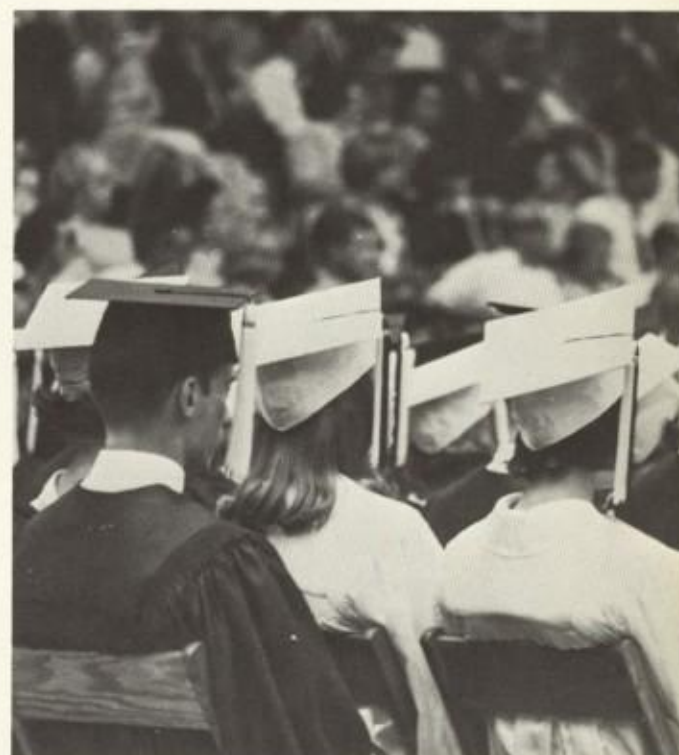

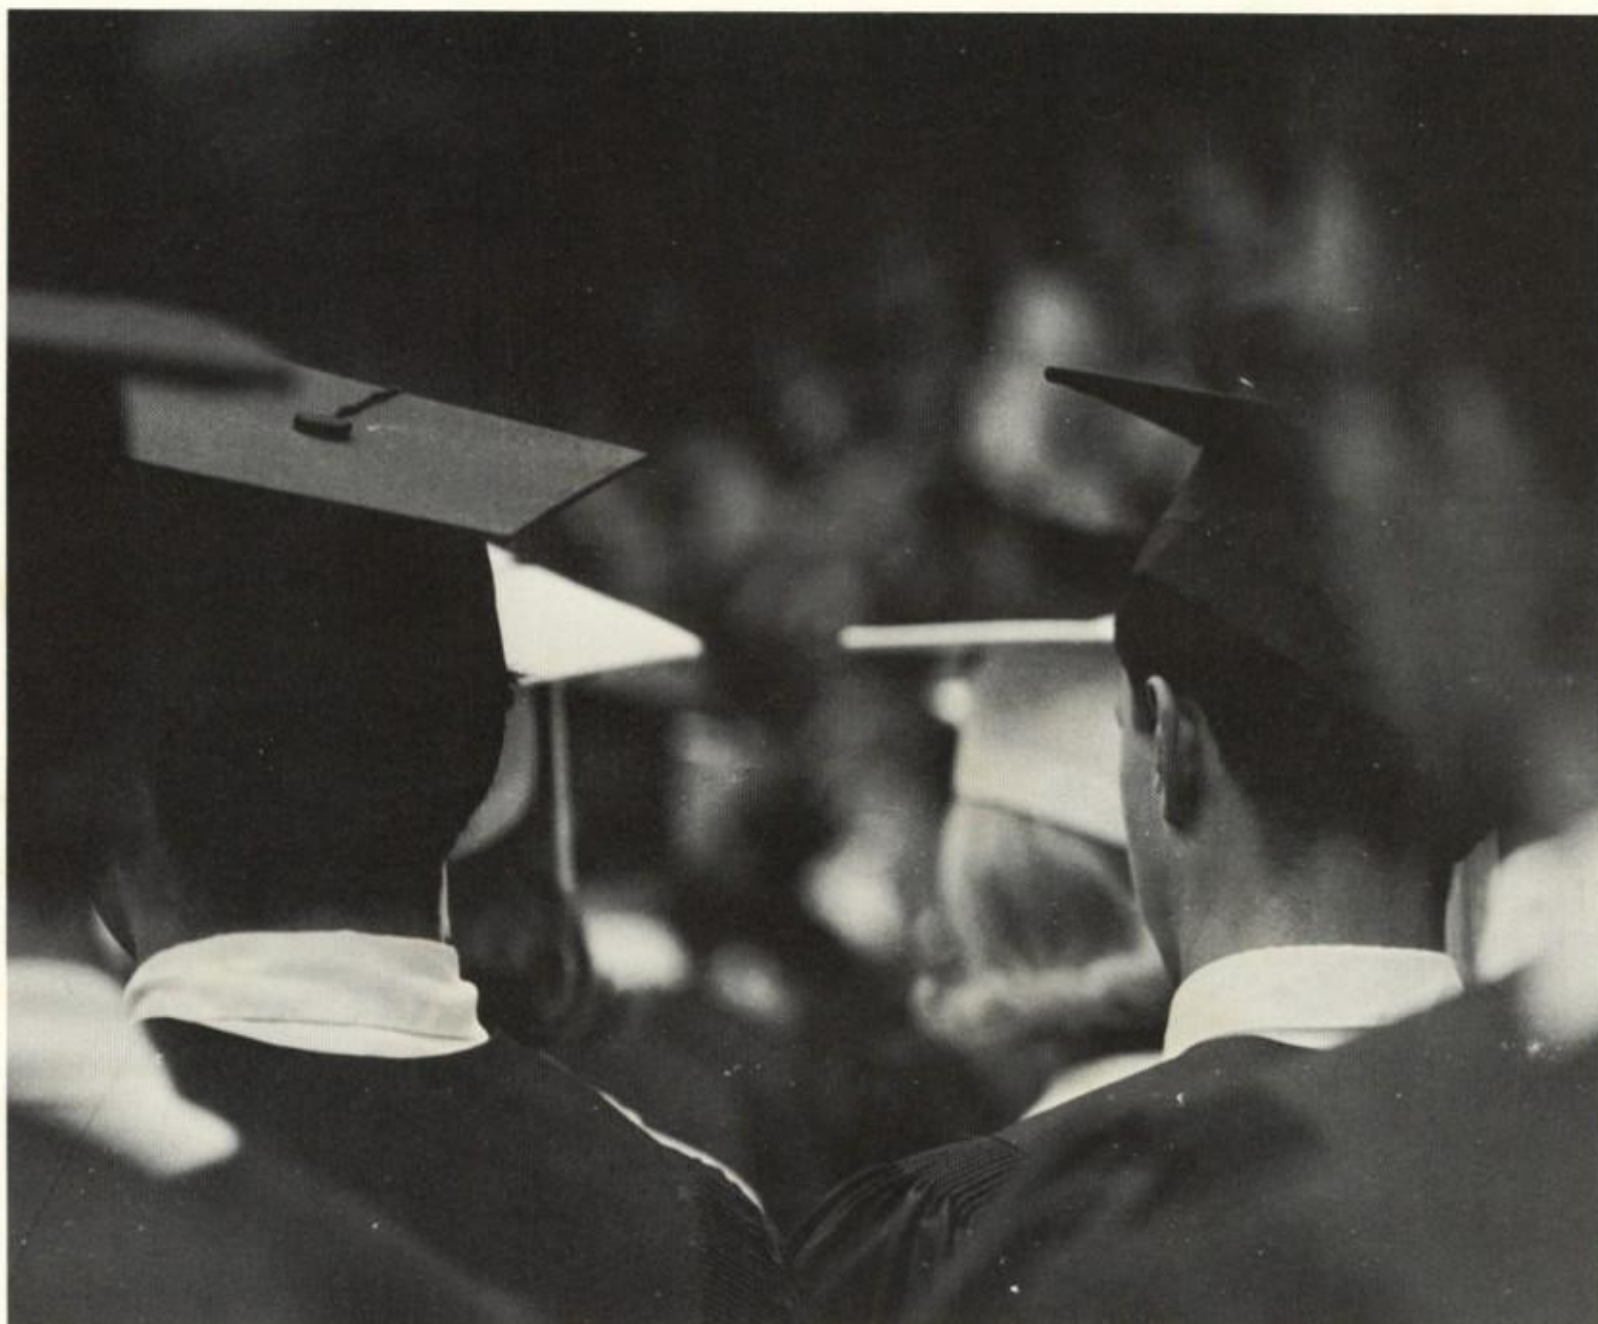

In this a year to remember.

As the senior year
draws to a close,
it is a time
to pause
and reflect,
yet we push onward,
thinking only of the plans
for the future
and what it holds.
New aspirations
replaced old achievements
and new dreams
replaced crushed hopes.
Even in the final rush, memories of senior meetings,
wills, prom, and a bus trip to New York will linger as each of us
walks forward to receive his diploma, proud to have come this far,
apprehensive for what the future holds.

A world to conquer—
A mind to set at ease,
A searching desire to question why.
Problems unsolved
With the freedom to challenge;
The acceptance of self
With pride and humility.

A world to conquer—

As senior year draws to a close
I have a strange yearning to go back and start over again.
Yet I am compelled to push onward.
There is a beautiful world lying before me hidden beneath sorrow and strife.
I know I must find and conquer this world.

Creative thoughts and ideals
With pathways yet unconceived.
Challenges in perception,
Encountering new directions,
Developing self-respect and pride.

A sense of belonging,
Building a firm foundation,
A time to learn and grow.
Delusions of wisdom
Confronted with realism
Existing in a sophomoric dilemma.

A new way of life unfolds,
An identity untold
With unknown paths and dreams.
First impressions gained
And imaginations untamed
With determination never before shown.

Established patterns reveal

With two years experience behind them, the juniors started the year with enthusiasm
and an idea of what was to come.
They easily accepted
the grind of homework and classes, but captured the spirit through activities.

Challenges in perception

Juniors are given the chance to explore beyond academic opportunities.
They learned to apply their knowledge to themselves in order to improve their power of understanding.

Encountering new directions

The junior class eagerly set out to prove themselves ready and able to take on the responsibilities of being upperclassmen. Through clubs and activities, juniors were heard in every phase of school life and were soon recognized as able leaders in school affairs.

Developing self-respect and pride

Accepting criticism enabled the juniors to increase their respect for others and themselves.
Realizing that their work was a reflection
of their individualism,
they took pride in their achievements.

A sense of belonging

As sophomores, the class of '71 has become an established part of the school.
No longer filled with uncertainties
and bewilderments,
they set out to fulfill their roles each hoping to make this year an unforgettable one.

A time to learn and grow

A sophomore often finds his second year
a time to correct
the mistakes
he made as a freshman.
His habits,
attitudes and outlooks
rapidly change
and remotely take on resemblances
to those of an adult.

Confronted with realism

For many,
sophomore year is a period of existence,
often forgotten
as upperclass activities take over.

Existing in a sophomoric dilemma

Sophomores find they have many adjustments to make. They learn to coordinate their interests with their activities. Having survived their second year, they eagerly anticipate their years as upperclassmen.

A new way of life unfolds

September, holding many new experiences, brought the class of '72
into the reality of high school life.
Not only did they accustom themselves
to a vigorous schedule,
but they developed new attitudes and learned to use their imaginations.

With determination never before shown

Determined not to be left behind in the shuffle, they struggled endlessly

Creating leadership and responsibility
And binding friendships through common interest—
The advantages of involvement.
Combining education, service, and recreation
Through creative outlets,
Each individual's needs are expressed.
Providing good will
And extending ideas through projects
Proves co-operation is essential for success.

Senior Class

Fun night, banquet, and the senior room were just a few of the activities organized exclusively for the Class of '69. Planning for graduation, the committees began early in the year selling announcements, and organizing programs for baccalaureate and commencement. Holding bake sales and a sock hop, and selling T-shirts provided the needed funds for graduation activities.

Junior Class

Guiding the Class of '70,
the junior class officers and committee chairmen organized and carried out many profitable and entertaining projects.

Fine Arts Week,
sponsored by the juniors,
provided a chance for all Start students to display their artistic talents.

A sock hop, bake sales,
and class meetings
occupied the year for the juniors.
The junior prom, "Lure of the Woodlands"
was successfully held in February.

Mr. Kenneth Oehlers, Miss Joyce Hochmuth, Advisers.

Sophomore Class Committee Chmn.—Jan Hoffmann, Mike Jones, Diane Graalman, Pat Long, Tom Koinis, Linda Lau-man.

Sue Kemp, Vice-President

Sophomore Class

Organizing the Sophomore Turnabout gave the Class of 1971 their first taste of responsibility. Working together, officers and committees planned a bake sale and a sock hop to insure the success of the turnabout. Attending an end of the year picnic provided a chance for sophomores to get together before becoming upperclassmen.

Student Council

Responsibility is the keynote of Student Council activities as shown by the successful projects which the council has adopted. The Student Action Committee was established to promote better understanding between the students and the administration. The homecoming dance, Book Mart, Student Council dance, and campus cleanup were all successfully executed by various Student Council committees. Strengthening ties between the school and the community, the council sponsored Christmas Cheer and March of Dimes campaigns.

N.F.L.

The National Forensic League is a nationwide organization with chapters in over 1,000 schools.

It is an honorary club and membership is earned through competition in debate and individual events tournaments.

Highlighting the year was the Glass City Debate Tournament held at Start during Christmas vacation.

The event drew contestants from seven states, and two four year scholarships were offered to the winners.

Amorosa

In keeping with their motto, "Friendship through Service," Amorosa members strived to serve others through charity. Under the guidance of Mr. Brian Roe, adviser, AMA's were kept busy serving cider and doughnuts at the November teacher's meeting, decorating a homecoming car, holding a candy apple sale, and planning their first alumnae tea honoring founding members. An activity with Donata provided the members of Amorosa with the chance to improve relations between the two clubs.

DECA

Developing future leaders for marketing and distribution, the Start chapter of the Distributive Education Clubs of America co-ordinated its activities with the purpose of the organization. The members conducted their own radio program on WCWA and displayed their skills by participating in district, state and national leadership conferences. Contributing to the homecoming parade, holding a car wash, planning the second annual DECANIC, and operating Spartan's Corner, the stationer's store, were only a few of the highlights of the year for DECA members.

Donata

Members of the Donata Service Club continued their purpose of giving to others by collecting and sending needed items to servicemen in Viet Nam.

Other service projects included a Christmas party for underprivileged children and a bakesale to raise money for the Stadium Fund.

Keeping busy throughout the year, the members attended a theater party, an alumnae tea, a splash party, and a dinner for new members.

Equestrian

Equestrians improved their knowledge of the care of horses and attempted to better their horsemanship skills. In order to increase the funds of the club, a popcorn ball sale was held, and pony rides were given November 2. As a novelty, the club entered two horses and a pony in the annual homecoming parade.

Fishing Club

Organized in the fall of 1965 in order to promote school spirit and improve the techniques of angling, the members of the Fishing Club, proved to be the entertainers of the school. Projects of the year included selling the "Spirit of '69" buttons and the annual basketball dribble to Bowsher for the Start-Bowsher game. Besides sitting as a bloc to cheer at games, the members have the distinction of holding the world title for the longest stretched rubber band.

Forum

"Some clubs talk about spirit, Forum shows it."

Setting out to prove this slogan,
the Forum Literary Society
painted spirit signs for all home football and basketball games.

They also presented a skit
for the Spirit Week pep assembly.
Members enjoyed a hay ride and a swim party.

The annual 24 hour car wash was held in the spring to augment their treasury.

Initiating a new project, Forum invited guest speakers to their meetings.

Future Homemakers

Holding a popcorn ball sale,
winning first prize in the homecoming parade,
donating fifty dollars to the stadium fund,
and traveling to the state convention were only a few memories for the Future Homemakers.
Members of the club sought to further their interest in homemaking by living up to their motto: "Toward New Horizons."
Other activities of the year included a lecture on hair care and serving at a teacher's meeting.

German Club

Selling spirit ribbons and card party tickets and holding a bake sale were only two of the projects for members of the German Club. Organized to further the understanding of German customs and culture, German students attended such events as the annual German-American festival and the Christmas service conducted in German at Augsburg Lutheran Church. Under the guidance of Frau Kohler, the members welcomed the new inductees at a costumed Halloween party.

F.T.A.

In order to fulfill their purpose of becoming familiar with the profession of teaching, the Future Teachers of America initiated a new program of tutoring grade school students. The members sponsored the area FTA meeting for those who worked in the lighted schoolhouse program. Special recognition was given in April to Teaching Career Month and various scholarships were issued. Substituting, selling refreshments at the Owens Illinois opera, and attending a square dance were some of the high points of the year.

F.N.A.

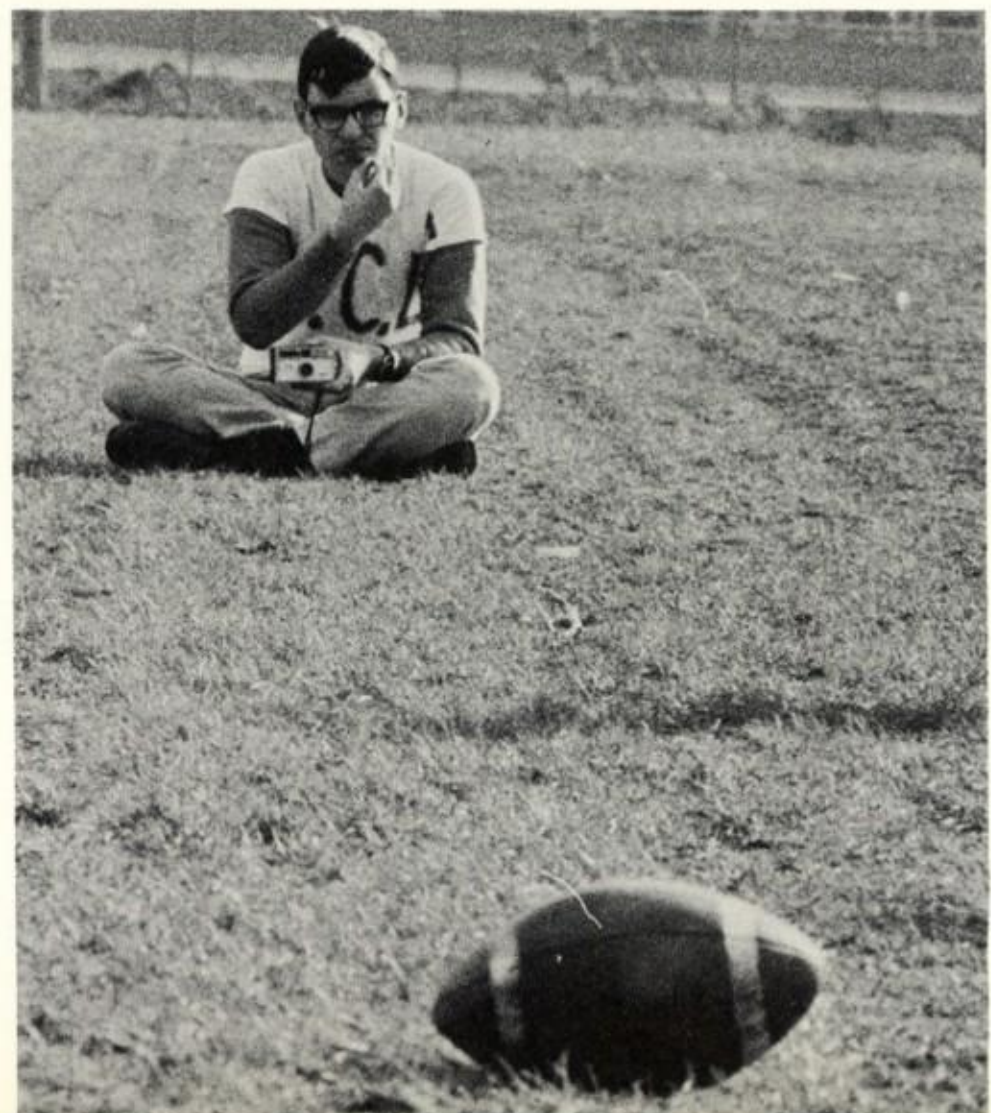

The Future Nurses of America, advised by the school nurse, Mrs. Dorothy Harrison, is devoted to informing the members of possible careers in the nursing field. Giving Christmas baskets to needy families and serving at a faculty luncheon proved to be the main service projects, while a tour of a funeral home added money to the treasury. An added inspiration to FNA members is the knowledge that 15 former members have become registered nurses.

Junior Classical League

Spring inductions in the form of an old Roman Banquet provided the new members of the Junior Classical League with the opportunity to view the customs of the Roman Empire. The members enjoyed both theater and splash parties and, in order to increase the treasury, organized a bake sale. They promoted the study of classical languages by reading books on Roman civilizations.

J.C.W.A.

In April, the Start chapter of the Junior Council on World Affairs acted as host to twenty-four area schools as they formed the annual model United Nations devoted to helping the members better their understanding of world problems. Other activities in keeping with their purpose, included a get acquainted party with Cornelia Borjes, the foreign exchange student, a Gobble Give for needy families, sending dolls to Viet Nameese children and sponsoring a foreign exchange student panel.

Pep Club

The Pep Club set out to promote spirit and unity as they planned the annual Pep Club-Varsity "S" picnic, a Sadie Hawkins dance, a cotton candy sale, and sponsored the homecoming parade contest for the best decorated car. As a service to the school, the members provided the cheerleaders with pom poms and money to help pay for new uniforms. The junior girls performed a skit for the St. Francis game while the freshmen held a car wash.

Pericleans

"Friendship through knowledge"—members of the Periclean Literary Society promoted literary activities and projects, supported school activities, and extended friendships. A homecoming car, the powder-puff football game, performing in pep assemblies, and planning a winter sleigh ride were highlights of the year. As a service to the community, the members collected for UNICEF, while a car wash, bake sales and a December candy cane sale were the main money making projects. Keeping in touch with former members, the girls held an alumnae tea during Christmas vacation and organized the senior banquet, a final salute to graduating members.

Quill and Dagger

Members of the Quill and Dagger Literary Society have been active this year serving the school and their club.

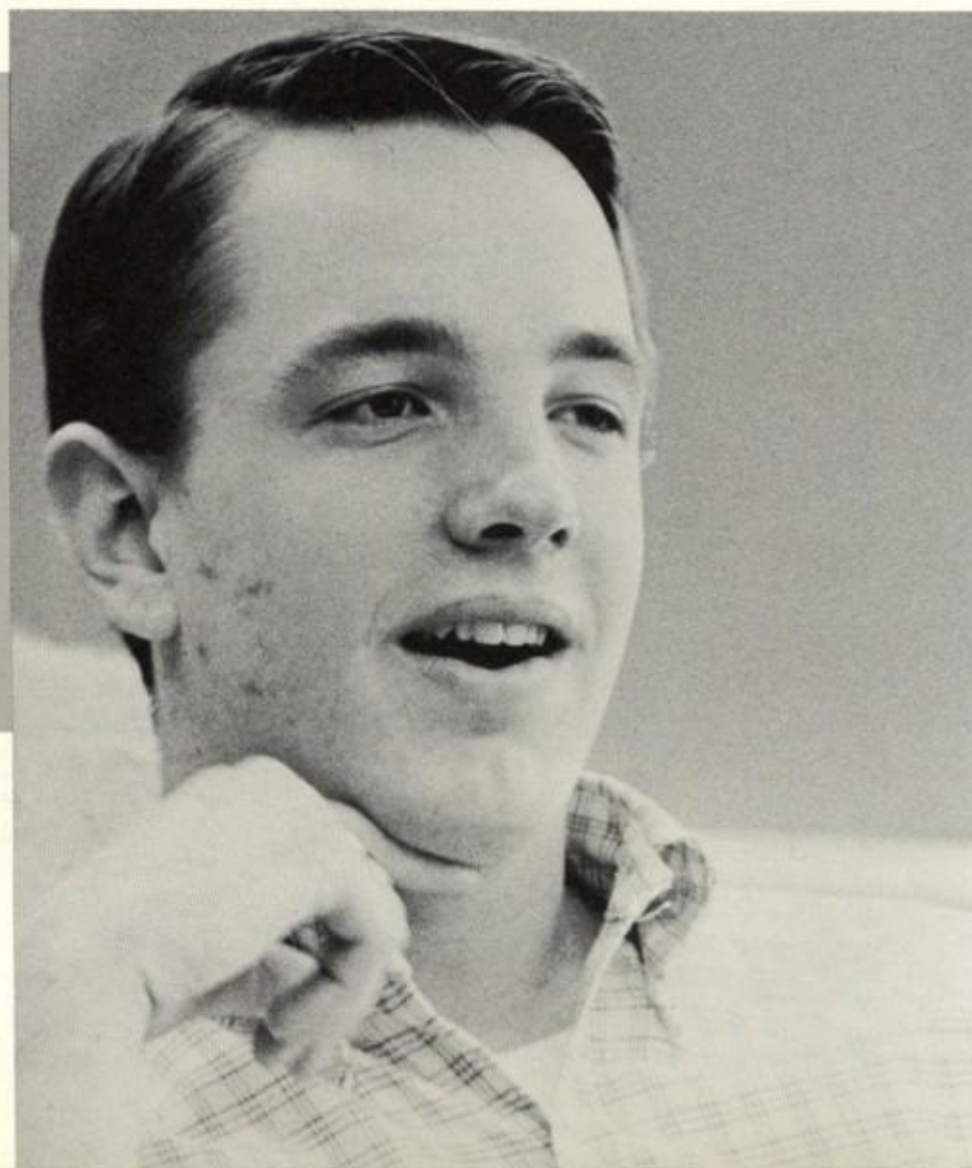

QD provided the Christmas tree which decorated the senior court.

Car washes were the chief money-making projects.

Other activities included a hayride, participation in spirit week, senior banquet, and the annual spring campout.

QD—Front Row—P. McKinley, Hist.; W. Yager, Chap. Row 2—J. Christen, Pres.; R. Haggart, V. Pres.; J. Straka, Sec.; P. Rang, Treas.; C. Marlow, Sgt.-at-Arms. Row 3—T. Carroll, D. Heintz, T. Pochadt, G. Thespians

Visiting the Art Museum,
the opera,
and local theaters,
provided the members of the Thespian Dramatics and Fine Arts Club with the opportunity to view the many facets of the theater and fine arts.

Thespians were found on stage and behind the scenes of Shenenigans and provided ushers for Sejuna.
An innovation of the year was a new name, better suited to the purpose and activities of the club.

Urbanski, W. Shipman, M. Pfleger, D. Kasch, M. Hardy.

Tumbling Club

The Tumbling Club was formed this year in order to promote an interest in tumbling and acrobatics and help maintain physical fitness. The members initiated such events as a St. Valentines Day cake sale and tumbling tournaments. In order to develop new skills members traveled to TU for open gym night.

Varsity "S"

Membership in Varsity "S" is offered to those boys
who have lettered in a varsity sport.

A Thanksgiving dance and an alumni party were the major activities enjoyed by the members.
Varsity "S" provided guards for pep assemblies,
held ropes at basketball games,
and sold programs at athletic events.

Early morning practices were part of the daily routine for the Senior Orchestra as they perfected their musical techniques for concert and contest presentations. A major part of the year was spent traveling to the area elementary schools to perform and to create an interest for future orchestra members. Working in co-operation with the band, the members participated in tag day and the candy sale. The annual Christmas concert provided area residents with the sounds of "Sleigh Ride" and the traditional Christmas carols.

Royal Choir

Soloing in state competitions and the prestige of singing in the All City Choir sparked Royal Choir members to continue improving their musical techniques and ability.

Mr. Harold McClure, a veteran choir director, came to start bringing many new ideas with him.

New musical arrangements were purchased with the profits from the annual candy sale.

Singing for enjoyment, the members performed a Christmas concert for the PTA and the student body.

State wide solo competitions at Bowling Green were the highlights of the year, while the choir as a whole entertained in "Youth Performs" at the Peristyle.

Mr. Harold McClure, Vocal Musical Director.

Spartanettes

Amidst stubbed toes, missed turns, and forgotten practices, the Spartanettes promoted spirit and provided entertainment at both football and basketball halftime activities. Accompanied by the marching and pep bands, the dancers performed routines to such tunes as "Cabaret" and "Step to the Rear."

Rushing to meet deadlines, rearranging dummy sheets, and scouting the halls
for new ideas,
the Galaxy staff proudly presented their bi-weekly issues.

Under their new adviser, Miss Patricia Osborn, the paper contained such new features
as the Book Nook, the Question Mart,

The Shield

New ideas combined with daily turmoil set the stage for the 1969 Shield.

Increasing tensions were felt as the staff rushed to meet deadlines, working endlessly through the maze of lost layouts, picture croppings and patronage sales. Novelties of the year were the additions of tip-ins, color pictures and a bright cover. Satisfaction was realized in the spring as staff members proudly distributed the result of months of hard work—Shield '69

Earning trust and respect—

Both teaching and being taught,
a teacher continues to learn each day.

Developing new techniques and promoting timely projects, he finds himself striving to keep abreast of his classes
by using modern approaches, yet occasionally injecting
long established traditions, attempting to make his class hour unique and worthy of attention.

Mr. Christian R. Thomson, Principal

Challenges of the educator.

As each student's needs vary,
so must a teacher learn to express himself in a multitude of ways.
From the satisfying detection of a long awaited smile of realization, to the moment of utter anguish when twenty-five pairs of eyes seem unable to comprehend two plus two, he exerts himself to reach the end product—knowledge.

Initiating new programs—

In an effort to make the school curriculum appeal to a wider variety of students, several new courses were initiated this year. Vocational Home Economics instruction proved helpful to many as they combined class hours with prejob training. Many seniors were given a creative outlet as they selected a new English course designed to lend understanding to various modern literary techniques and to foster creative talent.

Cheerleaders

The many hours of summer practice proved worthwhile as the varsity cheerleaders returned from Camp Valley Vista after capturing a 1st place award. Selling spirit badges, practicing cheers and routines, and sewing new uniforms kept the squads busy when not performing in front of the crowds.

The activities wing rang with shouts and chants every Monday and Wednesday afternoon as the girls practiced split jumps, cartwheels, and other skills.

Golf

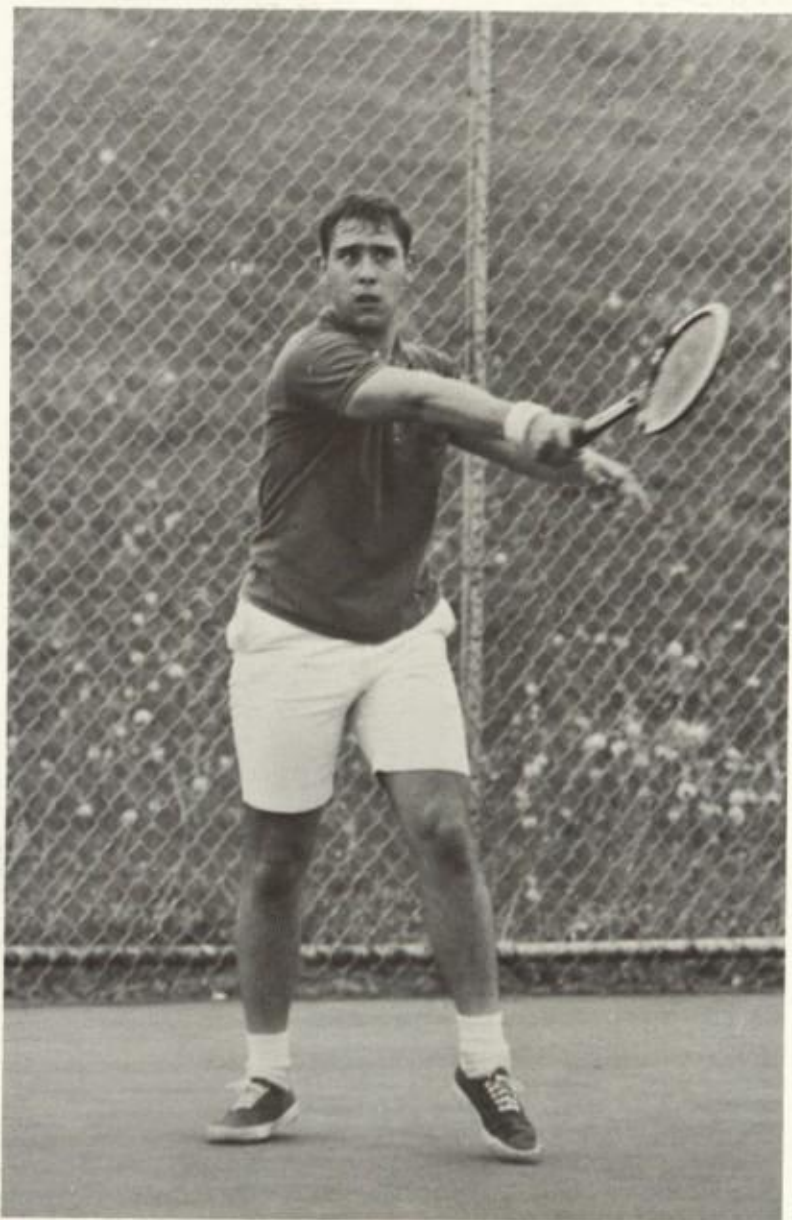

The 1968 Varsity Golf team, under Coach Darryl Kroggel, completed the season with a 5-6 overall record and fourth in the Blue Division.

Most Valuable Player, Tim Klump, led the squad with an 81.5 stroke per round average, which earned him second team All-City honors.

In the district tournament Start placed eighth out of eighteen teams.

The 1969 season looks very bright with returning lettermen Dick Hense, Tedd Banash, Bruce Bowles, and Mark Wallington expected to lead the Spartan golfers.

Tennis

The 1968 Varsity Tennis squad lobbed its way to a 5-7 record in overall action.

Junior Mark Fisher was tapped for second team All-City honors in singles competition.

His 8-5 record topped the Spartans.

In doubles action, sophomores Tom Fought and Steve Hall compiled a 4-4 record.

Hall received the Scholar Athlete trophy.

A 5-0 shutout over Scott was the biggest victory.

As all lettermen are returning, Coach Roe is looking forward to a Blue Division title in 1969.

Tennis—Front Row—M. Canning, M. Fisher, M. Goeckerman, J. Bylow, J. Mawer. Row 2—Coach Brian Roe, D. Qualman, R. Foster, T. Fought, S. Hall, Coach Donald Neiderhauser.

An opening victory over Waite, 79-45, proved to be the highlight of the 1968 Varsity track season.

Most Valuable Runner, Gary Rabideau, placed fifth in the District meet in the 440 yard dash. Steve Scarvelis sped to victory in the 50 yard dash at the spring A.A.U. meet with a record time of 5.8 seconds. The Scholar Athlete Award went to Mike Mocniak. Coaches Simrell and Koch are looking forward to a strong thinclad squad next season with many promising juniors and sophomores returning.

A year in reflection

A year is gone—
 often it was filled with excitement racing by in a flurry.
 At times, the moments of depression became frustrating and intolerable.
 For everyone,
 it was a time to grow
 and a time for learning to accept new challenges.

Filled with love and pride

Cheering, screaming, pushing athletes to triumphant victory,
or striving diligently for individual honor,
each student, alone, or in crowds,
added to the excitement and competition,
resulting in the electrifying feeling—
Spirit '69.

Not all remembrances are pleasant,
nor all inspiring;
yet all have become additions to the growing register of invaluable experiences and accomplishments making this year an unforgettable one.

Order of the Sphinx

"Sphinx says" became a familiar phrase in the halls of Start High School as a new organization began its attempt to build sportsmanlike spirit among the students. Membership in the secret organization is limited to twelve students who have shown great interest in heading spirit campaigns and serving Start High School. The five senior members are to be revealed each year in the SHIELD.

A year has ended
but another awaits eagerly to begin.

Those events which seem of unequaled importance today will become but vague memories tomorrow.

We of the '69 SHIELD staff hope we have been able to record
for the future
your memories of this year.

To all the students
I owe a big thanks, for it is your expressions and experiences which have made the '69 SHIELD distinct from each of the others.

I would also like to take this opportunity to express my sincere appreciation to the staff
for the many ideas and hours they so willingly gave in completing the yearbook.

Through our time spent together we shall recall memories of
"Out of a matchbox comes Atom Ant," piercing stares, shredded faces,

Sphinx handshakes,
Close Park on the slide,
recordings and off-color jokes,
hidden pictures, smoking bananas,
noodles in the cookie jar,
and the China Cupboard.

With many regrets I end this book and one of the most rewarding experiences of my life.

Carol

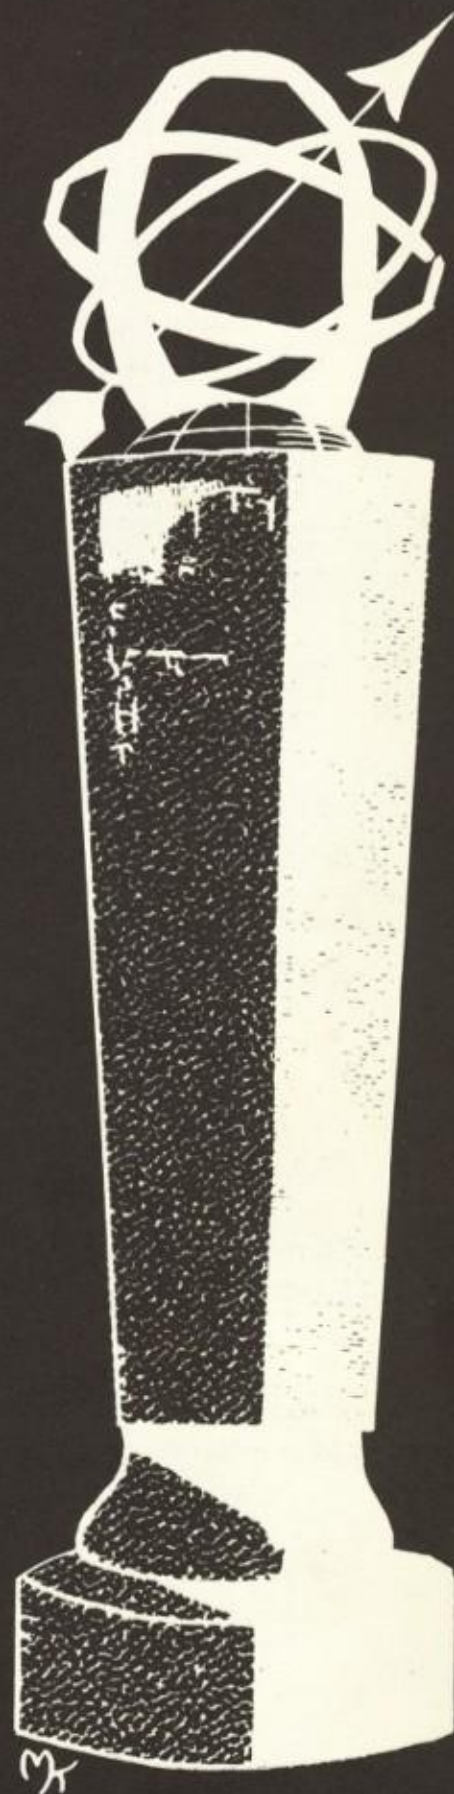

Many thanks to: Mr. Richard St. John, adviser, for his endless time and experienced guidance; H. A. Powell Studios, Enterprise School Studios, Bob Abraham, Irving Lloyd, John Engwert, Clint Spevak and David Hamada for their creative photographic talent; Wm. J. Keller Inc., Bill Celano, Roy Ticen, Jewell Gates, Christine Onetto, for their journalistic advice; and S. K. Smith Company—and a very special thanks to the faculty, patrons, and student body for their support.

In Memoriam

We remember with honor these former Roy C. Start High School students who gave their lives in the cause of enduring freedom

Jim,

Brody, I got something open today to you, that could affect the outcome of your life. I'm not sure I can't

I hope to have

Jimmy?

Had fun in our

English discussions & enjoyed them all

Good luck,
Berk Pickering

To Jim,
guy in a really nice class. Would like to know why everyone
calls you everyone?

Good Luck
xoxo

Barclay

Jim,
I don't know ya very well but good luck in the future and have fun this summer -
